

Mission and Values of Institut Sankt Joseph

9 pictures

Institut
Sankt Joseph

Every child shall be educated and formed in the values of community, democracy and equal human dignity

Every child shall have an understanding and an insight into other religions, nationalities, languages and cultures

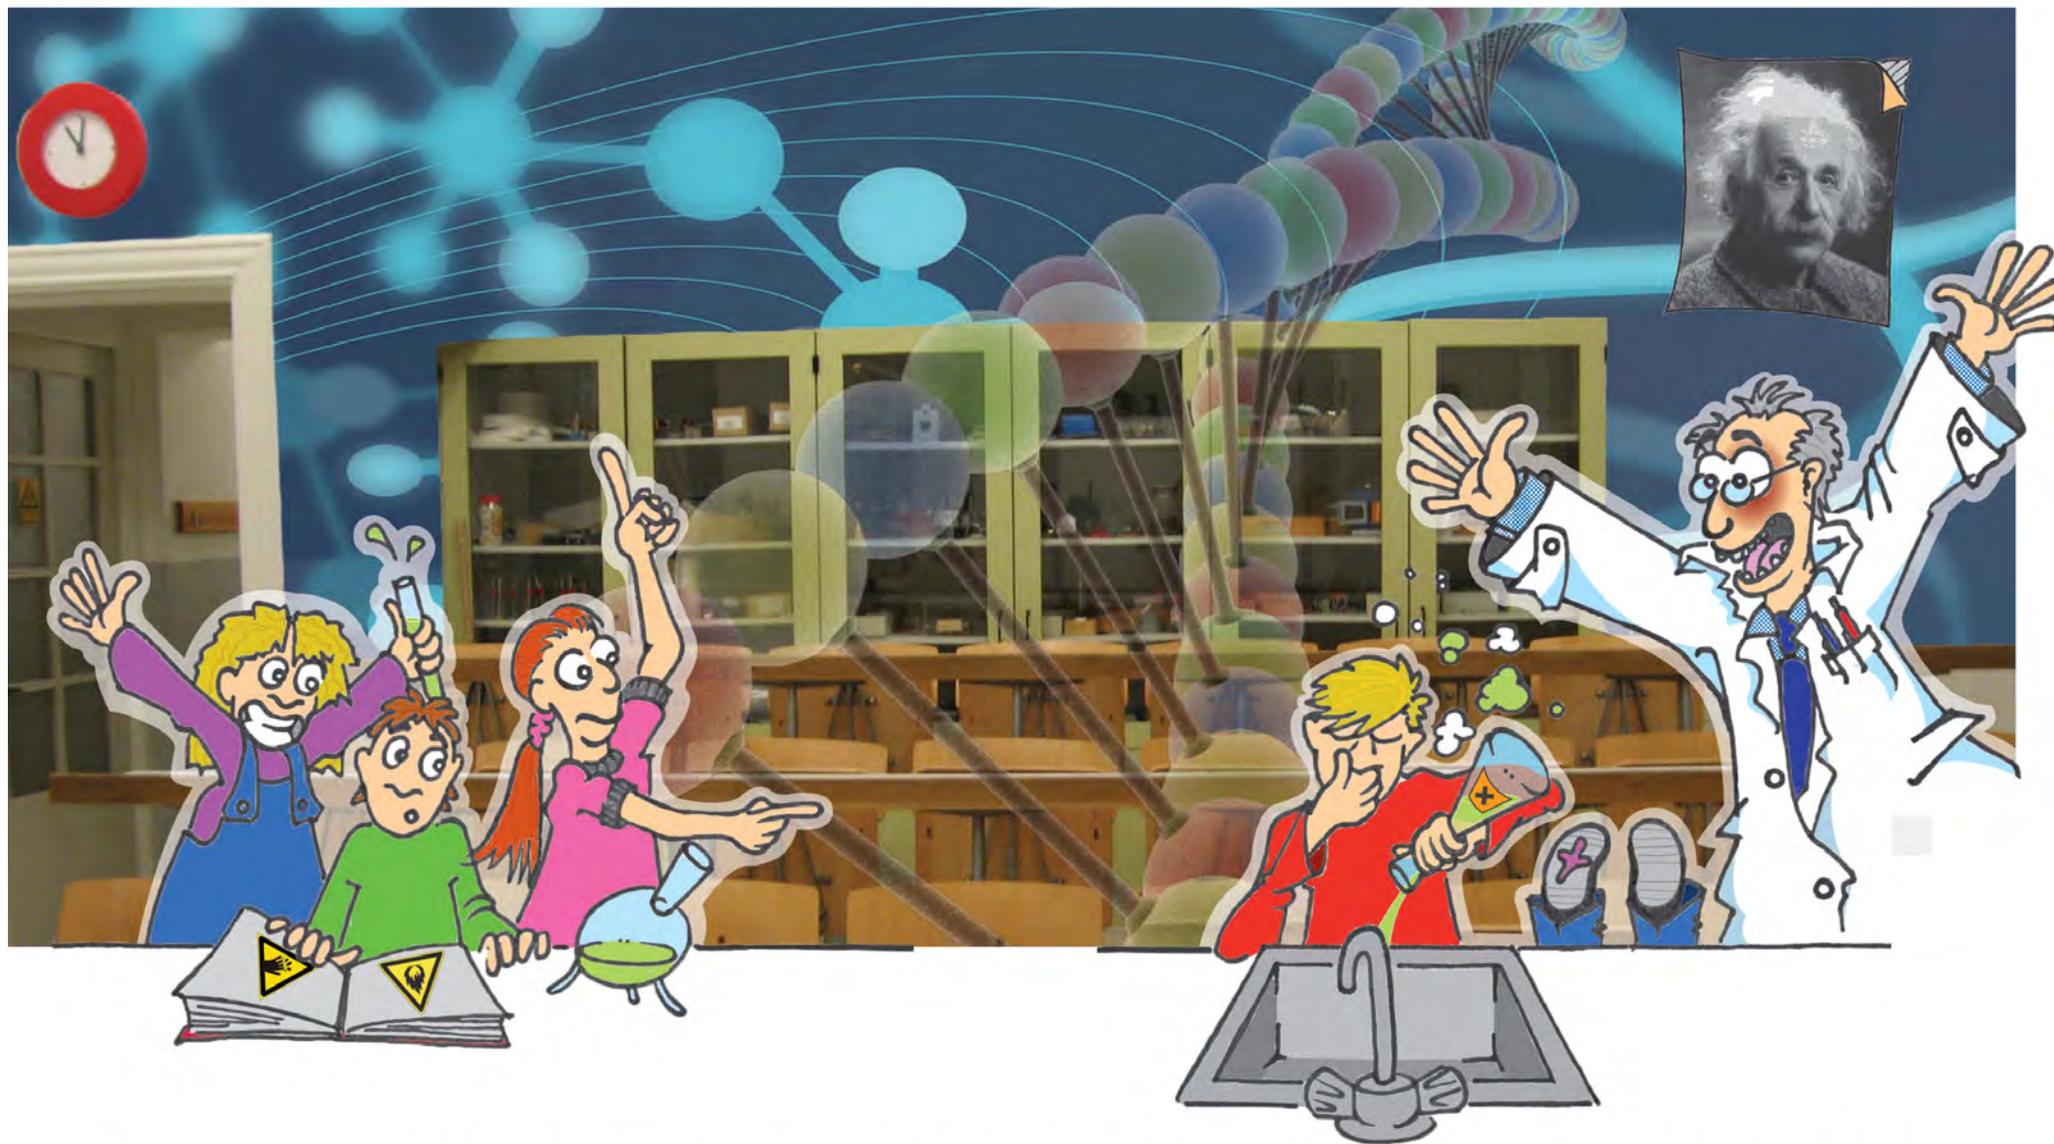

Every child shall have self-awareness with a growing recognition of their own strengths and values

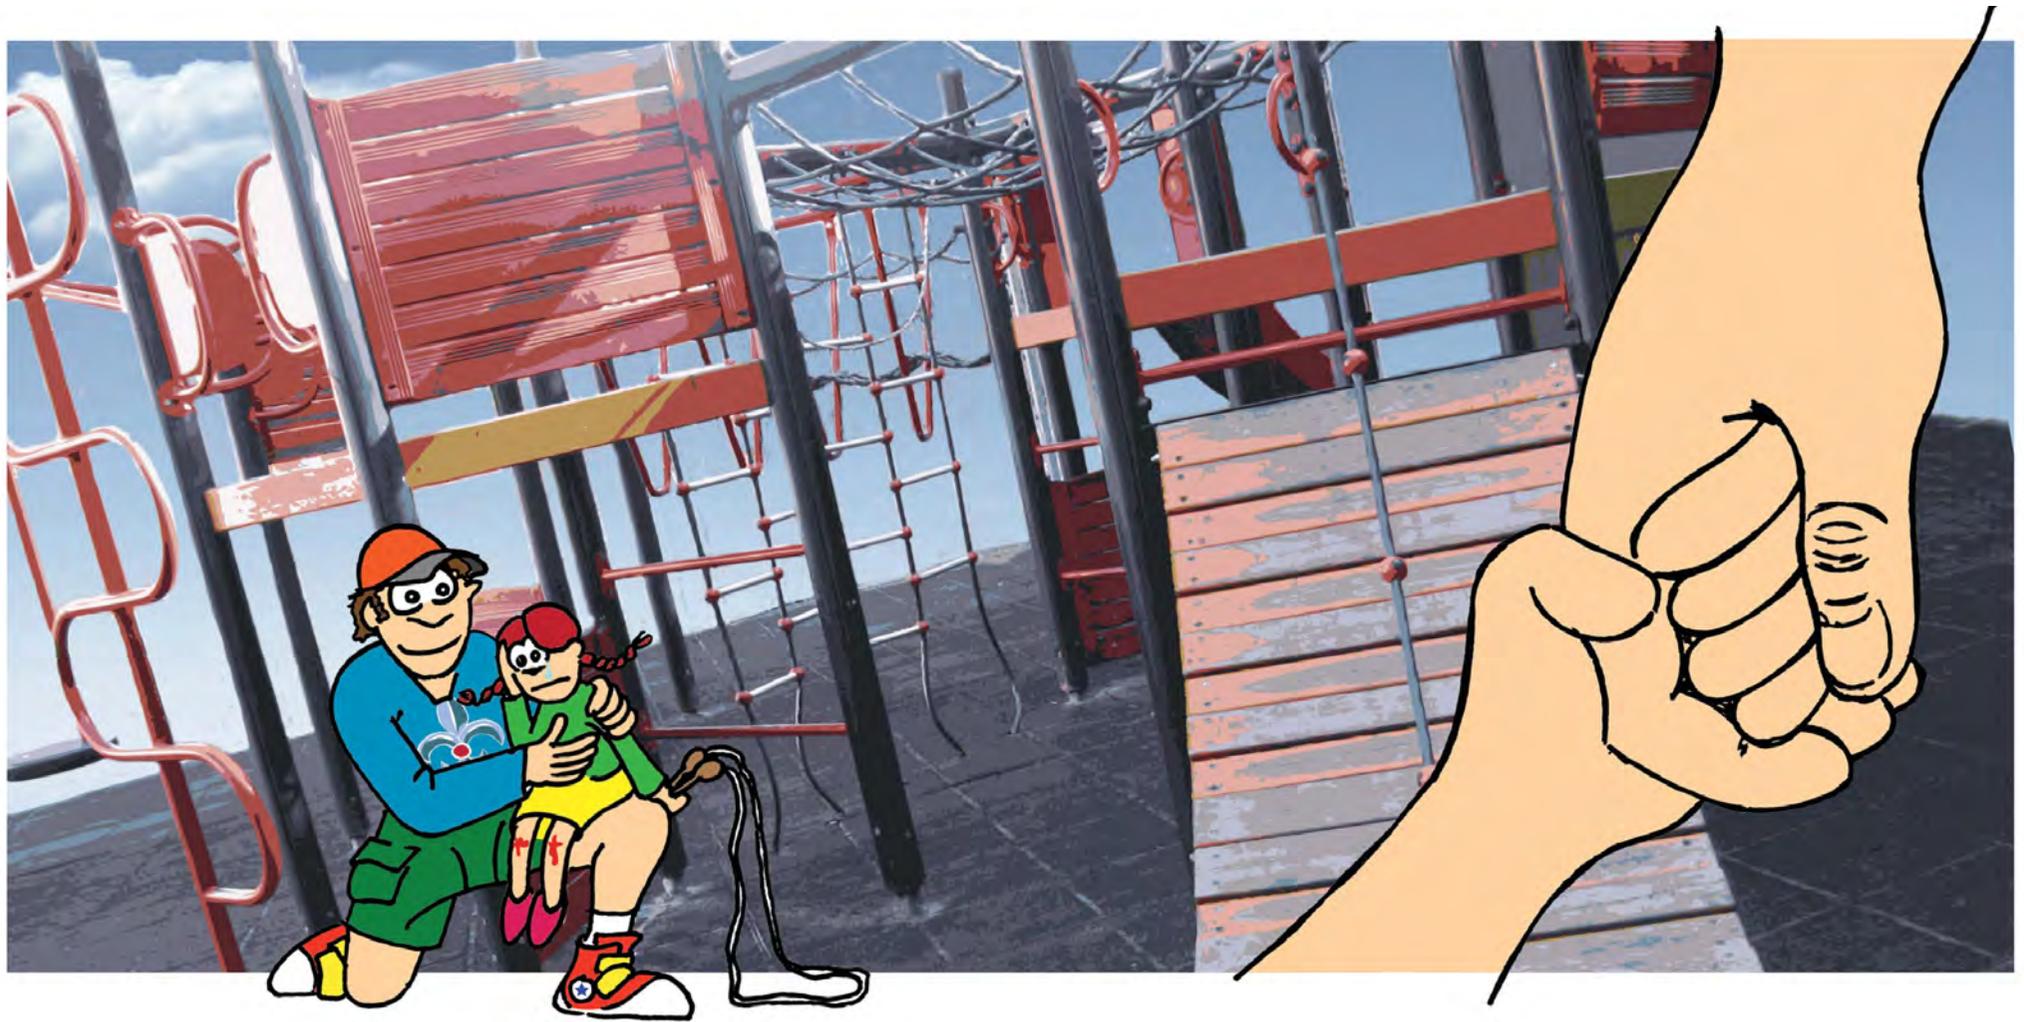

Every child's worldview and belief-system shall be developed and made more mature

Every child shall use their abilities for the purpose of learning, creativity and proficiency

Every child shall have the ability and courage to make ethically founded choices, and know that choices have consequences

Every child will want to use himself for the benefit of other human beings and the world; in order to create more freedom, justice and peace

Every child shall leave the school with specific competences, the courage to take on life and a desire for lifelong learning

Students from ISJ shall be positive members of society by being polite and empathetic towards others

